THE HAROLD G. FOX EDUCATION FUND
Scholarships 2027-2028
The Inns of Court, London

In the fulfillment of the wishes of the late Dr. Harold G. Fox, K.C., member of the Law Society, scholar, teacher, author and practitioner of international distinction in the area of patent and copyright law, and Honorary Bencher of the Middle Temple, Inns of Court, London, the Trustees of the Harold G. Fox Education Fund have established a scholarship programme for recently called barristers. The programme has operated since 1985. Additional information regarding the scholarships may be found on the Fund's website at www.thefoxfund.com.

The Trustees have approved the following information regarding these scholarships awarded only to aspiring barristers.

> The late Dr. Harold G. Fox, K.C. had a high regard for the formative training received by the newly called barristers at the Inns of Court in London, England.
>
> The work placement involves assignment to two or more sets of barristers' chambers for the period of one court year. Up to two scholarships are awarded annually to lawyers called to the Ontario Bar in their year of application.
>
> Each scholarship is in the amount of $75,000 CAD together with reasonable travelling expenses to and from London.
>
> The Trustees have been advised that a Scholar who goes to England under this programme and then returns may be regarded as having continued to be a Canadian resident while abroad and thus may be subject to tax on the scholarship.
>
> The duration of each scholarship is for the 11 months, commencing September 1, 2027 and ending July 31, 2028.

The qualifications are:

- You must be called to the Ontario Bar in 2027.
- You must be determined and undertake to pursue a career in litigation in Ontario upon completion of your studies as provided by the Fox Scholarship.
- Good academic standing is essential but election to a scholarship is not based on academic attainments alone.

Those interested should apply to the address below together with

- A curriculum vitae - typed (not more than two pages).
- Official Law School transcript (or photocopy).
- A covering letter.
- A passport sized photograph.
- The names and addresses of two references with telephone numbers.

Applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. EST on Friday, April 23, 2027. All will be acknowledged. The applicants will be considered by a committee of the Trustees who will prepare a short list of those to be interviewed. Applications can be received by mail to the address below or emailed to jgubiani@marksonlaw.com.
